Point Loma / Harbor Cruise

We will board the tour bus at 9:00 AM and proceed to Cabrillo National Monument located on Point Loma overlooking San Diego Harbor. From this vantage point, we will be able to see the entire bay and a major portion of the cities surrounding it. Here we will learn the history of the San Diego area.

As we leave Point Loma, we will stop at Rosecrance National Cemetery and visit the memorial monument to the Destroyers Johnston, Hoel, and ---, the ships who attack and turned the Japanese Battleships at the Battle of Samar during WW2, and conduct a short memorial service for our shipmates who have "crossed the bar".

The day will proceed with a two hour narrated cruise of the entire harbor from the entrance to the naval bases south aboard a Hornblower tour ship and will include a box lunch aboard. Beverages will also be available at the cash bar.

NavalBase / US NAVY Ship

We will again board the bus at 9:00 AM and proceed to the 32 nd street Naval Station, our home port in the forties and fifties. At this time the details of the visit are not determined, but will include a visit to an active US Navy vessel and lunch on board. Command Master Chief Belmares, Naval Base San Diego, and Command Master Chief Wallis, Naval Surface Force Pacific, have assured me that they will make it happen.

Depending on the timing, morning or afternoon, we will stop at the Seaport village, USS Midway, and the San Diego Maritime Museum, your choice of one or the other.
